

Promoting Consumer Choices, Arrangement and Open Competition

Mission Statement

The ICFA, unique in its diversity of membership and commitment to pre-financed funeral and cemetery services, is dedicated to providing the consumer with better value through open competition. We exist to serve and support our members in order to help them succeed.

We are committed to:

- fostering positive consumer relationships by promoting high ethical standards providing services, products and educational opportunities with emphasis on those resources that members cannot as effectively provide for themselves proactive leadership on legislative, regulatory and legal issues creating mutually beneficial relationships with state, regional, international and allied associations providing members the opportunity for growth and recognition through participation in the ICFA promoting the value of selecting and funding funeral, cemetery and memorial products and services in advance of need encouraging our members to promote the celebration of life, remembrance and memorialization promoting cemeteries as guardians of a nation's heritage and as places of tribute to the memory of those who have gone before us
